FROM THEIR MAJESTIES

Greetings unto the populace of the Outlands from Hrothgar and Madigan, King and Queen of these fair lands.

Firstly, We would like to thank Our predecessors, Cameron and AnneAliz for their most generous demeanor and for the friendship that they showed to Us. The Kingdom can only profit through the sharing of experiences and knowledge and We have benefited greatly from Their Excellencies' willingness to do so.

As We look forward on the calendar towards the summer and its many events, We rejoice at all of the possibilities that the Outlands has to offer. We will travel to the Barony of Dragonsspine in early June to invest a new Baron and Baroness. This is a momentous occasion for the Barony and for the Kingdom, as such an occurrence in any part of the Realm affects the whole. We encourage and invite all members of the populace to be present to witness this occasion. We thank Master Maelmarden for his years of service to the Kingdom and the Crowns that he has served in holding their lands for them, that they may prosper and grow.

We would also invite one and all to join Us in visiting Our fair cousins in Calontir for Lillies war. This war is always an excellent time and can serve as a much-needed vacation. We would like to show off all that the Outlands has to offer so bring your banners and period encampment necessities that we may all show our best side and the generous nature of the Outlands' hospitality.

We would ask all of Our populace to please write us with any award recommendations that they feel appropriate. Please also remember to include the SCA name and mundane name of both yourself and the person whom you are recommending. Please also include some of the reasons that you find the individual worthy of notice and, if possible, the recommendee's membership number. Such recommendations are very valuable to Us as Our Kingdom is vast, and her populace many. Also please remember to sign any communications, that they may be considered official.

Hrothgar Madigan

NEW CORONET FOR DRAGONSSPINE

Master Giovanni di Sienna (A.J. Riviezzo) and Lady Cainnleach Uiseir of Glendalough (Marcy Riviezzo) have been selected by Their Majesties Cameron and AnneAliz as successors to Baron Mael Marden as the Baron and Baroness of Dragonsspine. The Baronial Investiture shall be performed by Their Majesties Hrothgar and Madigan on June 6, at the Dragonsspine Champions Tourney event.

NEW KEEPER OF THE CALENDAR

The Honorable Lord Adam the Persistent has taken over the task of maintaining the official Kingdom Calendar. Please send all correspondence regarding event registration to him. A new Event Registration Form shall be printed in the July Outlandish Herald, and copies will also be available at StagsCon. Until those are received, please make sure to use the correct address rather than what appears on the old forms. Remember that an event does not exist until the registration form has been received and the event approved - sending the form to the wrong address adds delay that may affect the availability of the desired date.

FROM THE SENESCHAL

Greetings unto the Populace of these Noble Outlands from your new Kingdom Seneschal, Mistress Coemri nEithne:

As you may know, I was recently appointed to succeed Maestra Francesca in the office of Kingdom Seneschal and assumed the office at the Coronation of Their Majesties, Hrothgar and Madigan. I have been a member of the SCA for eight years, have lived in two Kingdoms (and never moved), and am a Mistress of the Pelican.

One of my goals is to continue the tradition of communication which Maestra Francesca promoted. An excellent opportunity awaits just around the corner at Stag's Con II in Aarquelle. Local and Kingdom Officers will have plenty of opportunity to communicate and lots of learning will most likely occur as well. This year there will be a General Training and Question & Answer Session where all Kingdom Officers will address the attending populace and answer questions. Please make plans to attend...it promises to be a great opportunity.

By the time you see this it is hoped that a site for Fall Crown Tournament in September will have been chosen. We will be needing bids for Coronation in November...I'm sure Countess AnneAliz will be soliciting such bids and will be able to answer questions. For the time being, please continue to send bids to me.

I am currently filling deputy positions and announcements of those will appear in the next O.H. I have had several responses to my request for those who are interested in serving our Kingdom as a deputy within the Seneschallate. Thank you...it is very heartening to know that so many worthy gentles are willing to devote time to this endeavor.

The camping season is upon us! Enjoy the events you attend, help to make them safe, and take care of yourselves. Please abide by site restrictions, modern world laws, and the SCA policies which allow us to create our Current Middle Ages.

In service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,

Coemri

FROM THE EARL MARSHAL

Greetings Everyone.

On page 3 of the most recent Tournaments Illuminated, Spring 1998, Duke Comar mentioned a ban on the use of weapon heads (axe, mace, etc.) on any polearm more than six feet long. THIS BAN IS NOT IN EFFECT. PLEASE DISREGARD. Also mentioned in this article is the occurrence of fighting that does not conform to SCA fighting standards. After corresponding with Duke Comar, Society Marshal, this is the information which I would like to pass on to you.

The fighting which is being talked about is tournaments and melees which allow kicking, grappling, throwing, wrestling, etc.

These things have not been allowed in SCA combat for at least 15 years and is clearly so stated in the Outlands Heavy Weapons Conventions:

"Grappling (includes tackling, bear hugs, grabbing body parts, armor, weapons attached to a person, or restraining a person in any way), deliberately tripping, charging with intent to knock the opponent down, and punching the opponent with a shield are absolutely forbidden. Fighters may not tackle opponents or fall on them as they die in order to make them fall. Charging is allowed in melees only."

Duke Comar is not trying to stop torch light tourneys, orc ball, blood of heroes, Monday night football, or even wars. If your household wants to have tournaments or melees that involve kicking, tackling, etc., don't do it at SCA events. These rules have been in place for many years and we have had many years of intense fighting to go with them. It is not a new rule that is the problem, it is the breaking of the old rules that is the problem. Read the Rules of the List before going forth into combat. As authorized fighters, we are all supposed to know these rules anyway.

An informal Quarter Court was held in al-Barran. The subject was, to the best of my knowledge, Siege Engines and Combat Archery in wars. Please send me information concerning that meeting. I would appreciate any comments and opinions from any interested parties about that subject.

In Service to the Outlands

Sir Haroun

FROM THE CHRONICLER

My original intention for this month was to have a column discussing how to write an event article. However, the clock is just not letting me get it done properly, so instead I will merely ask that all autocrats, current and future, pay close attention to next month's issue.

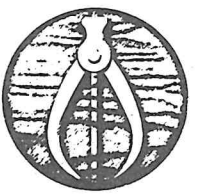
Many thanks to Mlodn the Mercheant for his OH fund-raising efforts.

Officers at all levels do what they can, to the best of their understanding and abilities. StagsCon is intended to enhance both - (re-)learn the rules and guidelines for your and related offices as well as learn how to most effectively perform the associated duties. Perhaps the most valuable part is the interaction with other officers. Often what seems an insoluble problem to one person has already been completely eliminated by another. Thus, I would like to strongly encourage anyone who is an officer or deputy, or considering such a thing for the future, to attend.

Rüdeger

FROM THE MINISTER OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

Kingdom Arts And Sciences Collegium on October 10th, AS XXXIII (1998)!!



I am soliciting bids for this event at this time. Please let me know soon if you would like to host this event. All classes will be of the "hands-on" interactive type. Please start thinking about what you would like to teach.

I have also taken on two deputies. Lady Lillian Clare du Chateauroux from the north and Lady Skameika "Skia" Draiknova from the south.

Calontir Lilies War held in June will have some competitions you may be interested in. I am 99% sure that Their Royal Majesties, Hrothgar and Madigan will be attending the War so help the Outlands show off its incredible talent. The competitions will be for War Points and are as follows: Best Period Merchant Booth; Best Heraldic Display; Best Period Encampment; Best Viking-age theme item; Best "Made on Site" A&S Project and Best "From the Ground Up" competition (example: tree to bench, animal to parchment.) In addition, there is a Kings Prize competition for Laurels and holders of Grant-level A&S awards and a "Pre-Norman English Item" competition.

Congratulations to the winners of this years Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition held on April 11th in the Shire of Gleann Medonach!

Functional Arts. Champion (for the second year in a row): Lord Caoimhin mac an Fhleisdeir (sounds like Kevin the Fletcher) for his Red Elm Bow, the first bow he has ever made. Since Lord Caoimhin will be leaving our fair Kingdom he has passed the Champions title over to Baron Ben. Second Place: Baron Ben Crubach for his Arrow Fletching. These are so consistently well made that I bet all would hit their mark. Third Place: Lord Dulas for his Chain mail sampler. Dulas was given his AoA at this event!!

Visual Arts. Champion: The Honorable Lady Caelte Caitchairn for her Book, the Call of Heroes about heroes of al-Barran. Second Place: The Honorable Lady Amber the Quietest for her Sable Lion Scroll made for Lord Hoegarden. THL Amber entered three scrolls each more magnificent than the rest. Third Place: Lord Oscar Einhardt for his enormous Model Ship. The display is so detailed it must be seen to be believed.

Performing Arts and Letters. Champion (for the second year in a row): The Honorable Lady Caelte Caitchairn for her Poem on the Crown Tournament won by Compte Lycurgus and myself and the Story written for Count Cameron and Countess AnneAliz during their reign. (I SWEAR that Countess AnneAliz and I had nothing to do with Caelte's win. The Poem and Story are incredible, ask her to tell them to you along with "The Kiss that Won the Crown" about Jarl Torin and Duchess Elisheva. Second Place: Baron Ben Crubach for his Story on the origins of "She-valery". Baron Ben is an amazing storyteller who keeps his audience enraptured through the whole performance. Ask him to tell you the story about the maiden who didn't want to be kissed, his story from last year's competition. Third Place: Lord Wolfangus MhicMairghdhin for a tune on the bagpipes. He should form a band with Lord Robert Stuart (a.k.a. Laird Loairn mac Eilach) to lead the Outlands into battle.

Fiber Arts. Champion: Lady Aurelia d'Ouessant for her 16th Century French Lady's Gown. The only way this gown could be more radiant is if she was wearing it herself! Second Place: Lady Rose Owyne for the four yards of fabric that she spun and wove herself. It is really wonderful to see someone's skill increase with the size of their project. The cloth is truly worthy of a period noble. Third Place: Lady Leah de Montgomerie for a man's Semi-Circular Cape. I have seen this worn by a fencer and always wondered who had done such wonderful work. Now I can connect the cape with the woman who has made many wonderful things from many different countries.

Domestic Arts and Sciences. All of the entries here were delicious so I know the judging must have been difficult. Champion: The Honorable Lady Maredudd Angharad Ferch Gwenhyfar for her Pomes Dorres. Second Place: Lady Aurelia d'Ouessant for her Parsley Bread. Third Place: The Honorable lady Bennet Murray for her Bread Pudding.

Newcomer's Arts (for those who have been playing in the SCA for 1 year or less). Champion: Chrystal Kurimski of Carlsbad, NM for her Potato Soup. I think we have found a future Feast-o-crat. The soup was delicious!

Children's Arts. Both entrants in this category were winners! Aubrey Murray for her Beaded Necklace. This young lady is very creative and talented in the medium of clay and bead stringing. I know she is interested in doing other crafts and I'm sure she will be successful in whatever she takes up. Liang chi Micfoal (a.k.a. Rocky) for her Crochet Chanter Cover. She made this for her father's bag pipes. Later in the evening of the event she was seen learning how to spin wool thread from Lady Rose Owyne. She sure takes to crafts like a duck to water! And, she picked a great teacher.

Until next month!

Contesa Zinoviia Mikulina'doch Korabelnikova zhena, (but you can call me MINA)

FROM THE HOSPITALLER

Unto the Populace of the Outlands Comes Words this Day from Mistress Leonora, Kingdom Hospitaller.

Gentle Cousins,

The hospitaller of your group has three main focuses: recruitment of new members; retain and integrate new members; publicity and demos. There is no way that one person can do all that!!! Your hospitaller needs your help. In this letter, I want to discuss one of the most important ways you can help your hospitaller and your group.

"If you fail to plan, you plan to fail" -- someone wiser than me

I have noticed that the groups who have set realistic goals with real numbers are groups who are growing and thriving. I am asking every group to come up with clear, realistic goals. Your local group needs to define what is important by setting goals. Once those goals are set, people need to decide what the group will do to succeed in meeting the goals they have set. People need to commit time and resources for some goals to succeed. Once those goals are set, they need to be tracked and when a goal is completed, celebrations should occur. Smug points should be handed out! Then set a new goal and go forward!!!

Remember, every time you are in garb, it is a time when the SCA is under scrutiny. You never know when you are going to catch someone's eye and spark their dream. When a person comes to your fighter practice, it is the responsibility of everyone there to make sure that that person gets welcomed. Invite newcomers to the modern after-practice gathering. Those times when stories are told over pizza of "no *, there I was" can really grab and hold members!

Yours in faithful Service,

Mistress Leonora

FROM THE WHITE STAG PRINCIPAL HERALD

Greetings unto the Populace of the Kingdom of the Outlands From Lord Pendar the Bard, White Stag Principal Herald.

I would like to thank Duke Artan mac Ailin for his service as White Stag. I have learned a lot from him regarding ceremony and protocol and wish to retain his counsel and his friendship during my reign.

I look forward to seeing all of the branch group heralds, and anyone else interested in heraldry, at Stagscon. I will be teaching the heraldry class and will be available to answer any questions regarding heraldry you may have.

I have some good news and some bad news regarding submission fees. The bad news is that starting in July each submission will cost $10. This brings it up to the average cost currently utilized by most kingdoms. It will also keep the White Stag office from losing money on processing costs. The good news is that all resubmissions, regardless of how old they are, are now FREE! Laurel does not charge for resubmissions and there is no reason why we should either. I hope to see many of you who have been procrastinating on getting your resubmissions in to start working on them now. If you need any help, please let me know. I have successfully consulted with many clients via e-mail.

The following submissions were registered in March:

Avram Ibn Gabirol. Household name for House of the Wandering Dragon.

I have enjoyed being Rampart Herald and will continue to handle submissions for the Outlands. I would very much like to have a deputy in charge of fundraising for the Kingdom Herald's office. The job comes with a title, Wharrow Pursuivant, and a paid subscription to the monthly letter of presentation and response (LoPR). Please contact me if you are interested.

Thank you for your consideration,

Lord Pendar the Bard, White Stag Principal Herald

There are currently 25 people on the nomination list. I have received 41 comments (one person commenting on another equals one comment, so one letter can contain several comments) and 3 nominations in the first quarter of this year from people residing in: Aethelmearc (most this quarter - 11), An Tir, Ansteorra, Atlantia, Caid, Calontir, Ealdormere, East and Meridies. This is better than it has been for several quarters, but is still remarkably low for 23,000 members possible.

Comments on nominees are GREATLY appreciated by the Board of Directors. Any new nominations that you wish to make are GLADLY received. Any member is free to nominate themselves as well. Remember that ALL information in these letters is kept COMPLETELY confidential, and no one elected to the board sees commentary on themselves. Send all comments and nominations to Susan Earley, Board Recruiting, 4N400 Church Rd., Bensenville, IL 60106. Please include your name and address in any letter sent concerning these matters, and remember to include the name and address of anyone you nominate for the Board.

REMEMBER: I will be reporting quarterly to each Crown and Kingdom Seneschal the counts (only the counts) of nominations and comments received from members of the populace in their Realm.

The Board of Directors of the SCA currently chooses its members from a list of nominees and past directors based on commentary from the membership and its current needs. The Grand Council has drafted an 'Election Proposal' as a possible replacement of the current system, describing how the Board of Directors might be directly elected by the membership of the SCA.There are a few variants to this proposal also available as addendums. The Board would like to hear commentary on this proposal and any variants before deciding whether to implement it.

The text of this proposal and the variants can be obtained from the SCA web page at http://www.sca.org under Board of Directors, [text of item]. For those not Internet-enabled, the proposal can be obtained from the Corporate Office by sending a SASE and a note to send back the 'Election Proposal'. Commentary on the proposal should be received by the Board of Directors at the Corporate Office by Oct 1, 1998 to be considered. Thank you.

FROM THE SOCIETY ARCHERY MARSHAL

Position open for SCA Childrens' Archery Deputy

I want to fill a new position of SCA deputy for childrens' archery. The main purposes of the office would be to coordinate efforts and information in childrens' archery between the various kingdoms, to encourage its safe development, and to come up with some guidelines for childrens' archery at an SCA-wide level.

The general requirements for the office would be: At least a good general knowledge of and experience in target archery, experience in childrens' archery, ability to handle communications between kingdom officers and others regarding childrens archery, and access to email.

If you are interested, please contact me with a resume.

SOIREE IN THE SAGE

Northwolde/Unser Hafen, June 5 - 7, AS XXXIII (1998)

The Incipient Shire of Northwolde sponsored by the Barony of Unser Hafen presents Soiree in the Sage. Huzzah!!! Come join us for our first ever event! The merriment will begin Friday, June 5th at 3:00 p.m. and continue through Sunday, June 7th, when the site closes at 12 noon. The site is private property near Keyhole State Park in Wyoming. This will be a camping event, anyone who would like to attend but does not wish to camp should be prepared to travel 10 or 15 miles to locate an inn. The site is primitive with no water available, so please plan on bringing your own drinking water! Privies will be provided, along with hand washing facilities, unfortunately no showers will be available. Due to the nature of the site, please do not bring any beasts with you, as we do not want to feed the local fauna nor see someone lose a beloved pet. Anyone planning on building their own campfire while camping please bring a fire extinguisher. Owing to the presence of stealth-cacti, we advise all attendees to wear closed-toe shoes

An Archery Tourney and a Fighter Tourney will highlight the day on Saturday, June 6th. A Bardic Circle, Dancing and Singing will highlight Saturday evening, after the Feast, so bring your musical instruments, favorite minstrels in a box (we'll provide the box) and song books (the Event Steward likes to sing, even if he cannot carry a tune in a bucket).

We will be providing a simple lunch Saturday afternoon and Feast that evening. Anyone with special requirements for feast should contact the Feast Mistress well in advance so that we may accommodate you. The site is wet!

How much will this lighten your pouch, you ask? For site, lunch and feast a mere $10! Site fee alone will be $5, with lunch costing $1 and Feast $4. Send your reservations to the Event Steward or contact him by phone or e-mail with any questions.

Directions: Take your best route to I-90, exit 165 (Keyhole State Park). Please be advised that there is massive highway construction going on in and around Gillette. Take exit 165 and turn north. Proceed approximately 1.75 miles on this road (you will be heading toward Keyhole). On the left (west) side of the road, you will see the entrance to a dirt road (marked with an SCA sign). Turn here (you will now be heading west). In approximately 3/10's of a mile, there will be another sign, indicating a turn to the left. You will reach the troll booth in about 1/10 of a mile. We will have SCA signs pointing the way starting at the interstate exits.

Event Steward: Lord Magnus of Falkirk (Dean Phares), 156 Westhills Loop, Gillette, WY, 82718, (307) 685-1532, dphares@vcn.com

For those who are not fighters, the archery competition will be repeated later in the day. The heavy weapons list to choose the Dragonsspine Warlord will open at 10 a.m. and the tourney will begin at 11 a.m. THL Ceasan will run the heavy weapons tourney, and has declared that it is to be fought round robin with all weapon forms. A fencing Prize Tourney will also happen Saturday, time to be announced.

Their Majesties Hrothgar and Madigan will hold Court between 5 and 6 p.m. on Saturday (although this is subject to TRM's whim). KNOWN WORLD HERALDIC SYMPOSIUM

Tir Ysgithr - Atenveldt, June 19-21, AS XXXIII (1998)

Site: The Windmill Inn at St. Philip's Plaza (4250 N. Campbell) is one of the newest hotels in Tucson. All rooms are suites, with either one king-size or two double beds (in addition to a fold-out couch), a wet bar, refrigerator, and microwave. Room rates are $65 for 1-2 people and $10 for each third and fourth person; tax is 7.5%. Reservations should be made through the hotel ((520) 577-0007 or 1 (800) 547-4747, press 5 for the Tucson Windmill Inn). Please refer to our code "SCAKWHS" when making reservations, so the hotel is aware that you're "one of us" and can put you in the room block. The hotel is wet, with the only restriction being not tearing apart rooms or hanging from the chandeliers (ie., know when enough's enough).

Registration and Schedule: Registration begins at 4:00 PM Friday; check-in time for hotel rooms is also at 4:00 PM. All are invited to join us for an informal mixer on Friday evening at 7:00 PM; there will be munchies and offerings provided by the Lit Taper Cellars (the local Brewers' Guild) and other local SCA vintners and brewers.

Classes will be held on Saturday 9:30 AM-12:30 PM, and 2:00 PM-5:00 PM, with a 90 minute lunch break between. The feast will start at 7:00 PM.

The always popular, unfailingly educational, and sometimes downright silly College of Arms meeting will be held on Sunday morning.

Programming and Teachers: We are planning three-track programming, perhaps one in each area of heraldry, onomastics, and scribal arts. How programming is arranged depends on the interest shown and gentlefolk willing to teach classes, lead discussions and chair panels.

Feast: We are able to present a fine SCA feast prepared by the Cooks' Guild of Tir Ysgithr on Saturday evening at the hotel (you cannot get lost! Well, maybe you could, if you tried real hard...). It will be a Middle Eastern affair, in keeping with the climate. If you have allergies or other concerns, please contact the Autocrat.

Transportation: Tucson International Airport is served by a number of large and small airlines; it is a 20-25 minute drive to the hotel. Amtrak and Greyhound also serve the city, and it is a 15 minute drive from those terminals to the hotel. Airport shuttles, taxis and SCA shuttles are all available to folks arriving in Tucson.

We invite you to brave the heat, and meet your fellow heralds this year in Tir Ysgithr at the 1998 Known World Heraldic Symposium!

Fees: Until June 15, site $12, feast $10; June 16 and later, site $15, feast $15. Please make checks payable to Barony of Tir Ysgithr, SCA, Inc. Note that hotel fees must be paid directly to the hotel.

More detail is available from the Autocrat or at http://kwhs.allegrosys.com

AARQUELLE DEFENDER TOURNEY

Aarquelle, June 20, A.S. XXXIII (1998)

Greetings from the Shire of Aarquelle! We invite you to join us once again for our annual Defender tourney at Mineral Palace Park. There will be, as usual, a tourney for both light and heavy weapons. The winner of each of these will win a prize courtesy of Lord Tiegr, our heavy champion from last year. Unlike previous years however, only the highest placing fighter from Aarquelle will be able to win the Defender title, but that will not keep someone else from winning the tourney and claiming the prize. The heavy weapons tourney will consist of Bear Pit rounds with alternating weapons styles for each round. The light weapons will be fought Round Robin, but my assistant has assured me that it will be a little different from the usual. There will be A&S classes run by Lady Suzannah, including a class on origami frogs to be used in the Great Frogathon on site. To follow, a pot-luck feast with a roast beef provided as the main course and the second portion of our great Croak-off, the Bi-cathafrog. For more information about the feast, please contact the Autocrat. (More details on site.) If you are bringing a dish to the feast, please be sure to include a listing, or label, of the ingredients. Volunteers and merchants are welcome, bards and dancing are encouraged, but we may not have an area appropriate for court dancing. The tourney site opens at 11 a.m. and the feast closes at midnight.

Fees are $3.00 for members, $4.00 for non-members, children 12 and under are free. All minors must be accompanied by a parent or a person with the proper signed, notarized papers etc. To eat at the feast, you must bring a dish to add to the feast. The tourney site is bone dry, but the feast site is wet. Pets on a leash are permitted at the tourney, but none at the feast please.

Directions to the Tourney: Pueblo. Take I-25 to the Santa Fe Ave exit (99B), go right at Santa Fe (the first stoplight) and an immediate left on 15th to the stop sign, turn right on Court. Take the first entry into the park and bear right. The field is on the right and parking is allowed along the curb. If the first entry is blocked, take the next right onto 19th then right again on Main and follow curve to the right.

Directions to the Feast: Take I-25 (north from the tourney field) to the Hwy. 50 west/ Canon City exit (101) and head west. Follow the highway past 3 stop-lit intersections take the first right - across from Dominos Pizza - onto Ridge Dr., 2nd house on the right, 4004. Extra parking is available along North Dr., the first cross street behind the Forestry Service building.

Autocrat: Lady Audrey la Solitaire (Audrey Rogers), 4004 Ridge Dr., Pueblo, CO 81008, (719) 545-3027, rogers@usa.net

MIDSUMMER SOLSTICE CELEBRATION

Rio de las Animas Perdidas, June 20, 1998

"Say, what abridgment have you for this evening?
What masque? What music? How shall we beguile
the lazy time, if not with some delight?"
(Wm. Shakespeare - A Midsummer Night's Dream)

Come one, come all, to our revel in the mountain sun! We plan a day of dancing, feasting, fighting, and fun at the glorious villa of Riverhold, in our Shire of Lost Souls. Set within the cottonwoods, on the banks of the Florida River, there is a time and place for your heart's desire be it found in a ballad beautifully sung, a cheer for valour and bravery, an arrow shot true, or just a picnic by our cool mountain waters. There is something for everyone here!

The hours are plentiful this time of year. What to do on such a long day? There will be dancing throughout the event, in the meadow under the trees. Kick off your shoes, the grass is soft and ready for stomping! A target archery tournament is planned, for those quick on the draw, and keen to the mark. We will also have fighting early in the day, to beat the fierce rays of the noontime heat. Please bring all your fighting and archery gear if you wish to join in.

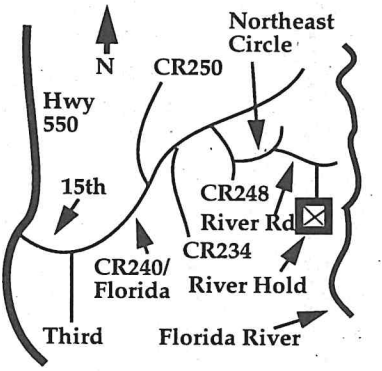
For the smalls, there will be entertainment and face painting by our famous juggler, who promises new tricks, and some hands-on play. A croquet tournament will also be held later on, and perhaps a boffer tourney, if we have enough interest. Please bring any safety gear your child might need.

There will be a potluck feast in the cooler hours of the evening, after we have all worked up an appetite, and a dessert contest later, with the spoils enjoyed by all. Bring your most delectable dessert if you wish to enter in the contest. (Minimal documentation and an ingredients list are required.) The Shire is providing roast chicken, and we ask that if you plan to join in the feasting, you bring a dish to share. To top it all off, a bardic fire under the stars rounds out the night. The evening isn't over until the last song is sung, so bring your favourite offerings. Prizes will be awarded for all the competitions.

No lunch is planned, so remember to bring edibles and drink to tide you over until the evening feast, and any water you might need for the day. The (discreetly) wet site is on private land, and all state age laws will be strictly enforced. No dogs are allowed, so leave your furry pals at home.

Site and Feast fee: $6.00 for adults (with a side dish to share), and $1.00 for children under 12. Children under 2 are free. Please make checks payable to: SCA - Lost Souls. Site opens at 8 a.m. on June 20th, and closes when the bardic is over. There is limited crash space - please contact Lady Adriana (Adrienne Bernhardt) at (970) 247-0967 for the details.



Directions: Take your best route to Durango. Go North on Hwy. 550 (Main Ave.), to 15th St. and turn right. Bear left at the top of the rise onto CR 240 (Florida Rd.). BANNER TOURNEY

Windkeep, June 27, AS XXXIII (1998)

Good gentles of the Outlands, Harken. The Shire of Windkeep invites all to attend our annual Banner Tourney to be held on Saturday, June 27, 1998 from 10:00 a.m. till 3:00 p.m. Valiant fighters will contest on the field with an Outlands Banner as the prize for the most flamboyant and chivalrous fighter in the lists (there will probably be a prize for the winner too, but SHOWMANSHIP is what counts). There will also be prizes for best death, best bereavement, as well as a contest for the best banner. Fencers are welcome. In order to enter the list, you must present a banner to the Mistress of the Lists and display it on the field. The banner doesn't have to be your own. The banner can display personal arms, historical arms, or be just plain decorative. HERALDRY COUNTS. Fanfares and demonstrations before combat are encouraged.

This tournament is held in conjunction with Cheyenne SUPERDAYS 98, which is an entertainment, demonstration and craft fair held by the City of Cheyenne. It routinely draws 20,000 visitors each year. We ask all gentles to wear their finest tourney garb, bring their pavilions, music, and arts displays, and show off the best of what our Society has to offer. There will be dancing for all interested, and an Arts and Sciences pavilion where artisans are encouraged to display and demonstrate their abilities.

Tourney Site: The grassy area adjacent to the Cheyenne Botanical Gardens in Lions Park. Take the Central Avenue exit from I-25 and follow the signs to SUPERDAYS. The site will open at 8:00 a.m. and close generally after 3:00 p.m. Please arrive early enough so that armour inspection can begin at 10:00 a.m. with the tourney beginning at 10:30 a.m.

General Information: The Tourney site is dry! Pets must be on a leash, and under your immediate control. There is a lake very near, so please keep track of your children as well. Merchants are welcome with the following restriction. You must contact the Autocrat for space, and you can only sell to SCA people. If you wish to sell to non-SCA people, a city merchants license is required.

You will be allowed to park along side the site on Carey Avenue to unload, but you must move your vehicle immediately after unloading. Parking will be available in the lots adjacent to SUPERDAYS. (Tell the parking attendant you are part of the entertainment.) The earlier you come, the better (closer) the parking. Crash space is available, and Master Rhys has also offered his lands to camp out on Friday and Saturday evenings. Please contact the Autocrat directly if you are interested.

Feast: Immediately after the day's activities, a revel and feast will be held at the Gazebo in Lyons park. The cooks of Windkeep will be providing culinary delights to satisfy both stomach and soul. The feast site is discreetly wet with beer and wine allowed in period containers. Please contact the Autocrat for additional feast information or concerns.

Fees: Site and Feast $6.00, Site only $1.00, Children half price. Please contact the Autocrat for feast reservations and information. Make checks payable to: SCA - Windkeep.

CRUSADE IN THE CITADEL

Citadel of the Southern Pass, June 27-28, AS XXXIII (1998)

Unto the goode people of these Outlands, does Sir Konrad, Knight of the Order of St. Edric, send sad greetings.

It is with a heavy heart that I must report the passing of my liege lady Viscountess Eirianedd, who recently succumbed to the illness that has been PLAGUEing her. My lord, Viscount Berold de Gilbert is now more firmly resolved than ever that the infidels holding the hills above this barony be destroyed.

The muster for the armies is set for the 27th day of June at the McKelligon Canyon Pavillion. The site will open at ten in the morning with combats to commence as soon as all are made ready. Following the Crusade we will revel in the hall until eleven that night. Entertainments will be conducted and a feast of many dishes will be set upon the board. Subtle and complex, it is to be the work of many hands. The site is dry.

On Sunday we will remove to Memorial Park for martial exercise. Several tournaments are to take place including 5-man armored croquet to test the entrants skills. This site is very, very dry. This site opens at 9 a.m. and closes at 5:30 p.m.

The fee for this experience is set at a meager $10.00. Please make checks payable to: SCA - Citadel.

While there is report that some of the infidel have fallen ill, this is only a manifestation of God's wrath and is not the Plague. Physicians assure us that Viscountess Eirianedd did not expire of the Plague. There is no Plague in the Citadel. There will be no Plague in The Citadel on the 27th and 28th of June.

Autocrat: Sir Konrad (Roy Conrad), 1715 Andy Williams, El Paso, TX, 79936, (915) 856-7919

Chef de Cuisine: Lady Leah (Amy Conrad), 1715 Andy Williams, El Paso, TX, 79936, (915) 856-7919

Crash Space: Viscountess Eirianedd (Beck Boetto), 6013 Alcade Street, El Paso, TX, 79912, (915) 585-3155, boetto_b@email.msn.com

Unto the goode populace of the Outlands does Sir Berold de Gilbert, Baron of the Citadel of the Southern Pass, send most courteous greetings. I must inform you of the untimely passing of my beloved lady, Eirianedd. The malady came upon her while she was held by those ruthless Wandering Welsh Gypsy Picts. Our physicians are still of the considered opinion that it was most definitely not the Plague. There is no plague in the Citadel of the Southern Pass nor will there be June 27th - 28th.

She did instruct me on her deathbed (while eating her last pound of bon bons to alleviate the pain and cruel suffering) to immediately search for a suitable lady to help me in the management of thys fayre Barony. The only conditions she placed upon the selection were that the Lady must have fiery (fire has many hues) red hair and eyes the color of blue diamonds. She has also insisted that I attempt to heal the rift forming in our region by considering any and all interested (even infidels).

The Lady selected must be willing and able to relocate to the far southern reaches of the Kingdom, must promise not to remodel the Baronial estates and be able to withstand the searing summer heat.

Any wishing to seek this position need to apply in person upon the 27th day of June at the site of the Crusades in the Citadel to meet with both myself and my fayre Cousin Averil du Bois d'Avignon for the interviews, as my Lady felt she has an unusual insight and understanding of the necessary qualities.

As I ponder the implications of the loss of my fayre Baroness, I sit in abject despair and sorrow, struggling to keep my Sanity (and finishing off those bon bons)

MOONLIGHT

Caer Mithin Halle, July 10-12, AS XXXIII (1998)

Warriors, attend! There will be as many woods battles as there are fighters to fight; the more fighters attending, the more battles encountered. Saturday we will skirmish until the heat of the day inspires us to repair to the refreshing waters of Sitting Bull Falls for rest and relaxation. Once darkness falls, there will be a dueling tournament, fought by the light of the full Moon. Archers prepare your bows and notch your arrows, for there will also be plenty to keep you occupied. If there is enough interest in fencing, a rapier tournament or two will be arranged.

For the non-fighters there will be classes, and activities are also planned for the young. Anyone that is interested in teaching a class is requested to contact the Autocrat.

There will be two fires (if conditions permit, as decided by the Forest Service): one for those who like to narrate legends and serenade, the other for the drums and dancers.

Site: This is a camping event in the Lincoln National Forest. The site is wet (minors drinking alcohol will not be tolerated). There is no running water, so bring your own as the days are hot and dry. It also can rain, so bring shade as well. The only fires will be the two sanctioned ones mentioned above. Sitting Bull Falls is separate from the tourney/camping site, but still within the National Forest.

Site fee is $10 for the weekend, those 15 years and under are half price, those 6 years and under are free. Blue and green cards will be checked. Minors with guardians must bring proper paperwork. Sitting Bull Falls has an additional levy of $5 per vehicle. Forest Service decrees will be obeyed.

QUEEN'S PRIZE TOURNAMENT IV

Caerthe, July 11-12, A.S. XXXIII (1998)

The Queen's Prize Tournament has a two-fold purpose:

1. To introduce Novices and their skills to the general populace.
2. To foster the relationship between The Peerage and potential students.

Queen's Prize was founded to facilitate communication between different levels of skill in the Arts and Sciences. The best way to do this is to provide a nurturing environment where novices can receive pearls of wisdom, and information to improve their craft.

Queen's Prize is an event where the populace can experience a wide variety of period works not normally seen at other events, and have the opportunity to give positive response to the artisans.

In addition to the "official" judging and critiquing, the populace is highly encouraged to give prizes or tokens to the entrant(s) of their choice. Each entry will have a container for the populace to leave tokens in.

UNSER HAFEN DEFENDER

Unser Hafen, July 31 - August 2, AS XXXIII (1998)

The Champions of Unser Hafen would welcome you to the annual Unser Hafen Defender and Champions Tournaments. Three Tournaments will be held to determine the next Defender, Protector, and Warden of Unser Hafen. This year's theme will be Pageantry and Honor. In each tournament, entrants will be required to address their Excellencies, the current Champion, and your Opponent. Between rounds I am expecting entertainment. My goal is to make the tournaments similar to those in period such that they were entertainment for the gathered nobility. Be sure to bring lots of shade and cool drinks to surround the tournament fields. Gentles both from within and without the Barony of Unser Hafen are welcome to participate.

Entertainers: Please contact Lord Tuman. We are looking for entertainment between rounds. It should be something short and simple. Anything from juggling to singing. It need not be perfect, just entertaining and in a period style. We hope to see everyone participate in some way in this regard.

The Defender Tournament will be fought a' plaisance (with blunted weapons and no thrusting). To further prove the combatants' skill and diversity, no shields of any sort will be allowed. Any fighter who stabs or thrusts another opponent is automatically disqualified. There will be no exceptions. A double list will be run, but further details depend upon the number of entrants.

Feast: This year, the champions themselves will prepare a Russian style feast for Saturday evening. Cost is $5 per person. Make checks payable to: SCA - Unser Hafen. Watch this space for further details.

Autocrat: Lord Tuman Elnikov (Tony Scott), 2409 Poplar Dr., Ft. Collins, CO 80521, (970) 484-1087, tscott@ezlink.com

CALL OF THE DRUM

Aarquelle, August 2, A.S. XXXIII (1998)

The call of the drum is sounding once again and we encourage you to follow its irresistible lure to our fair Shire. If you have a skill for dancing, drumming, music, garb, or anything else related to middle eastern dance, plan to show up to this event. Those wishing to teach these skills to others, please contact me right away. I have need of instructors, and if you would like to run a class, I need to know early on. There will be copies of a dancers' directory listing teachers, performers, musicians, merchants, artisans and costumers handed out at this event free of charge. If you want to be added to this directory, please send me all your information at least two weeks before the event. I will need your name - SCA and modern, a listing of what you wish to be known for, and how to contact you. If you have a business flyer, send it. If I am not given the information in advance, I will be unable to put you in until next year, so please be early.

At the last Call of the Drum, I had several offers from kind gentles to bring middle-eastern dishes for the feast and regretfully I had to turn them down since we had a planned feast. This time I am holding a pot luck feast with a middle eastern theme and an odd request. All those wishing to bring a dish, please send me the recipe in advance - again, at least two weeks - so that we can make a cookbook. We will be selling copies of this cookbook at the event to raise money for our Shire. The recipes do not have to be strictly period, or even in period format, although if it is, please add the translation. You do not have to send a recipe to bring food for the feast, but please bring a list of ingredients for those with allergies. The idea behind this event is to celebrate middle-eastern dance and culture. Please bring something to put on our A&S display table to show off your work or perhaps resource materials for those interested in research and patterns. All items from the display must be collected at the end of the event.

The following is an open letter stating the personal opinions and beliefs of Don Maximillian.

Unto the Fencers of the Outlands does Don Maximillian send Greetings.

Having just returned from Sworded Affaire, I find that I must communicate a few things to the fencing community at large. Throughout the course of the two tournaments there was an alarming trend towards people ignoring blows.

This is obviously unacceptable. Often, I waited for the combatants to ask whether or not the blows I saw were solid, and to my great chagrin, they rarely asked.

I realize that the Outlands' tradition dictates that "if you are not in the armor, you cannot call the blow." While this is, in fact, the case with a lot of borderline blows, it is not the case when a draw cut runs the length of the blade or a thrust moves the mask of the opponent. A "two-inch bend" in an epee indicates more than adequate force; I saw hits that produced more than eight inches of bend.

We are here to show our honor and chivalry, our flair and panache. Ignoring blows does not make us winners, does not make us good fencers, and is not acceptable. If you get hit, fall down. This is not complicated. If you hit someone and he or she does not fall down, ask why not. This too is not difficult.

If you wonder if I am addressing you specifically, then examine your conscience. If you get a sense of self-righteous indignation or a shadow of guilt, then I am addressing you. If your conscience is clean, you will understand and agree with what I am saying.

Ignoring blows is dangerous. This was well-illustrated by the person who, after having ignored blow after blow, parried wildly, hooking the quillions of his opponent's dagger and flinging it into the crowd, striking an unarmored bystander. Yes, that happened. And it CANNOT be tolerated. Fencers who ignore blows are a safety hazard and should have their authorizations questioned.

Again, I plead: Take what hits you. If you're not sure, ask. For my part, I offer you my apologies for not taking a more active hand in the marshalling of these bouts. I can only promise that I will not be so lax in the future.

Don Maximillian

FOUND AT ESTRELLA

While cleaning up my Estrella campsite just prior to leaving, I found a beautiful ring half buring in the dirt where our campfire had been. The ring is lovely enough that the person who lost it must be now in mourning, despairing of ever seeing it again. I have spoken with nearby groups, but no one local remembers this ring. Please advertise far and wide that I have found it and am in possession of it. Describe it to me, and it's yours.

In service,
